Assistant United States Attorney at Little Rock, Ark. conferred with Special Agent at Little Rock, Ark.

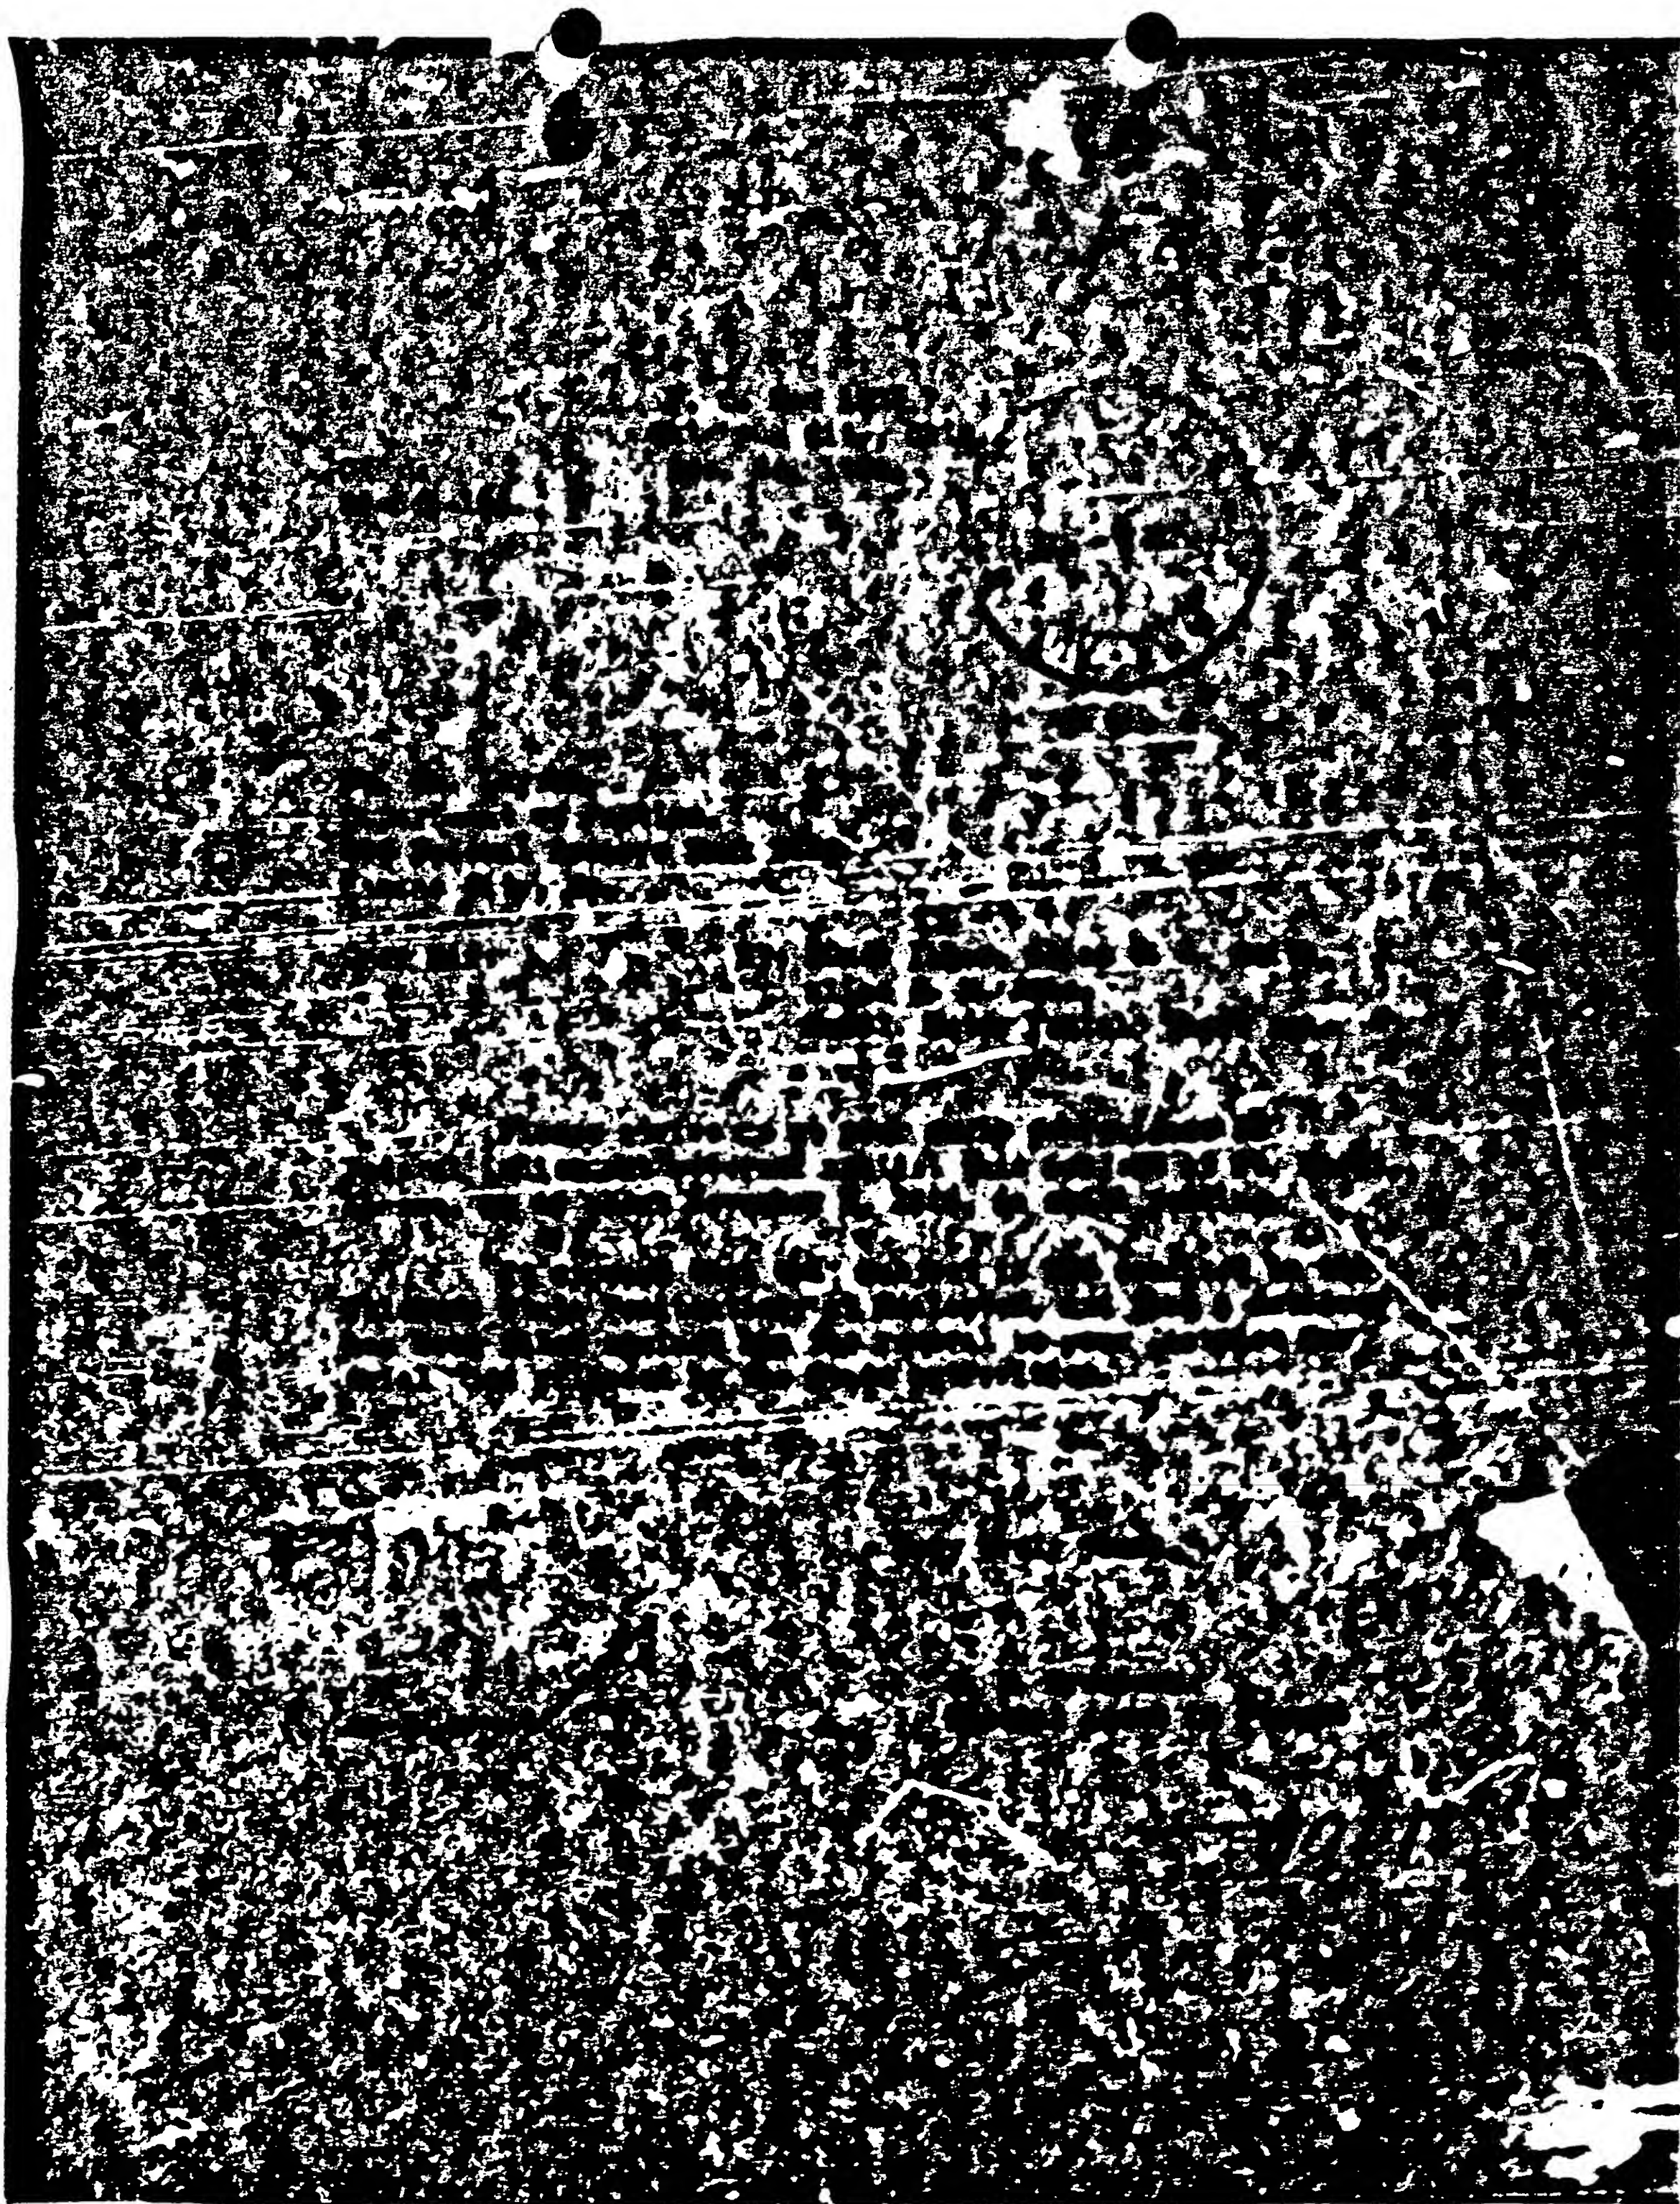

Report of Special Agent L. D. Decker, Little Rock, Ark., April 22, 1938.

On April 22, 1938, Special Agent L. D. Decker, Little Rock, Ark., conferred with Assistant United States Attorney L. D. Decker, and reviewed the salient facts in the case in regard to the Duke Lee, who advised against prosecution, stating he is of the opinion that the evidence against him is not sufficient to charge, especially as the arresting officers are unable to assist in tracing the car or to give any definite information relative to the same. It was agreed by the report of Special Agent L. D. Decker, Little Rock, Ark., under date of March 29, 1938, that the investigation of the Duke Lee, failed to show that the Duke Lee had been stolen, but reflected that it was the property of Subject Terrell. The report of Special Agent Decker, above referred to, discloses that Subject Lee had title to the automobile, Duke Lee, registered at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

In view of the fact that Subject Lee will not be prosecuted and the investigation of the Duke Lee is in question, and that investigation fails to show the Duke Lee had been stolen, the case is closed.

Dear Sir:

Re: ELMER A. LEMAR,
N.S.P. Act

The above captioned subject was indicted on November 9, 1926 at Ft. Scott, Kansas for theft and interstate transportation of an automobile from Fairfax, Oklahoma to Ft. Scott, Kansas. He is at present serving a seven-year state sentence at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary at McAlester, Oklahoma for burglary and a federal detainer has been lodged against him at this institution. His approximate date of discharge is set for August 29, 1932.

As the investigation in this office has been completed and no further action is to be taken, authority is hereby requested to have this office of origin changed from Oklahoma City to Kansas City, Mo. as it would seem unnecessary to keep this file open in this office until the expiration of the state sentence.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the case of ELMER A. DEAN - NATIONAL MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT ACT, your file #23-846 and your letter of February 27, 1931, in which you requested that the office of origin in this case be changed from Oklahoma City

RAL OF MATHEW KIMES JAILED IN HOT SPRINGS

Ray Terrill Arrested After Chase by Officer.

ADmits ROBBING BANK

Robbing Caudill and Companion.

With Their Wives, Held in Hot Springs, Where They Were Former Arkansas Convicts.

Special to The Commercial Appeal.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Nov. 25.—

After an exciting chase during which officers fired two shots at him, Ray Terrill, 27, partner of Mathew Kimes, notorious Oklahoma outlaw, now serving a life sentence, late this afternoon was arrested. With him also was captured A. J. Pittman. The wife of the man, who previously been apprehended at their rented cottage here.

Terrill readily admitted that when questioned, he denied, however, to state anything concerning his activity since July, 1925, when the Oklahoma Bankers Association issued a circular containing a reward of $3,000 for his arrest.

"I admit I engaged in some crime," said Terrill, "but what I did is for you to find out. I am not talking, and I'll not give you any information. It is now up to you to find out where I am wanted. There are a number of rape and assault cases but I'm not guilty of one like the number John J. Garrettsburg with."

Pittman, however, he had had no connection with Terrill in any of his operations, and only met Terrill in this city about 10 days ago. He had known Terrill before coming to Hot Springs, and when he met Terrill here the latter, Pittman said, asked him to go with him to the Hot Springs cottage where he was being held.

"I am a married man," said Terrill, "and I have a wife and child. I have always been a law-abiding citizen of Dallas."

Auto Leads to Arrest.

The arrest of Terrill came when Chief of Police Joe Wakelin and Detective Herbert Akers went to the cottage on Pleasant Street to investigate the ownership of a Studebaker automobile bearing a Kansas license, which the local officers had been asked to look out for. Neither Terrill nor Pittman were home when the officers arrived, and while the officials were questioning Mrs. Terrill and Mrs. Pittman the officers found a leather portmanteau, which contained a full and complete set of burglar tools. The women were promptly placed under arrest. Before they could be taken to headquarters, Terrill and Pittman drove up to the rear of the house. Mrs. Terrill called to the back door and gave the alarm. The men leaped from the car. Pittman going toward Grand Avenue, where he shot and killed a police officer. Terrill kept on running and two shots fired at him missed and struck their mark.

Terrill, who is the rear of a negro's home, nearby, entered through the bathroom and went upstairs where he was fortunate in finding a suit of clothes that fit him. He changed clothes and even removed a small mustache he had worn. The negro woman heard a man walking upstairs and informed Constable John Young, who with county officers, had received a report of the shooting on Pleasant Street. Constable Young entered the house and found Terrill, who had come downstairs and gone to the rear, standing in the kitchen. He revolver in his hand. Constable Young got the "drop" on Terrill.

Terrill, ordered him to throw his gun on the floor, which the latter did.

A search of the cottage the quarter occupied revealed a large quantity of material in two suit cases brought to headquarters. Amongst the collection of exhibits, which were four revolvers, two pistols, two pump guns and a sawed-off shotgun, and every one of the weapons were loaded. The kit of burglar tools also, officers said, is the finest they have ever confiscated. There was one large box almost entirely filled with ammunition.

Two trunks, four suit cases and three bags were taken, together with a large quantity of cash, jewelry, watches, and other valuables, which are being held at the Hot Springs police station.

Made During Prosecution.

After Terrill had been briefly questioned, he offered that Walter and Detective Akers $1,000 if they would permit him to drop from the case. Story window to the glass below. The officers said.

Little information was given to the women. In answer to questions, Mrs. Pittman said: "You men have had my husband for a while. He does the talking for our family and I am not telling you anything."

Mrs. Terrill, however, took her husband's arrest to heart and burst into tears. She said she had married Terrill two years ago in El Paso, New Mexico, and was very devoted to him.

The men had over $1,000 in cash on them when searched, and cash of the amount of $750, together with about 15 diamond rings, also were taken from the women.

Terrill, it was learned, once was a prisoner in the Arkansas penitentiary. He made his escape while serving a sentence for burglary. Later he turned up in Lawrence County, Ohio, where he was convicted for robbing the First State Bank of Marietta, and sentenced to serve 30 years. While out on an appeal bond he again was arrested for burglary in Ardmore, imprisoned and escaped in January, 1925. Later he was arrested in Joplin, Mo., in connection with the robbery of the Bank of Joplin and while he was transferred to the penitentiary at McAlester, where that town, jumped from an automobile and has been at large since his capture today.

Late tonight the man who gave his name as A. J. Pittman, after viewing a picture on a circular sent out by Sheriff George A. Carroll of Pine Bluff, Lawrence County, Wyo., admitted that he was Elmer A. Kimes.

The circular asked for Kimes's arrest on the charge of having shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Arthur H. Osborne, the shooting taking place on the afternoon of Aug. 1, this year, 45 miles east of Cheyenne.

"That's me, all right; only you men are just a little late. You did want me for that rap, but that crime has been cleaned up and I'm not wanted out there any more," was Kimes's statement.

Word from officials in El Paso, Ohio, indicated officers from that place would come to Hot Springs in an effort to obtain possession of Terrill. Rewards amounting to $4,000, the officials stated, probably would be paid for Terrill's capture. Terrill, it also was noted, was wanted for a diamond robbery in Kansas and Texas officials probably like to have him for an alleged bank robbery. In other local cases were involved, a man was held.

In an effort to ascertain how RAY TERRILL and INMAN obtained possession of the Studebaker Sedan, motor E-28819 found in possession of INMAN, Agent ascertained from the Secretary of State, Jefferson City, Missouri, that 1927 Missouri license number 483587 was issued to A. J. Pittman, Mountain Grove, Missouri, for Studebaker Sedan, motor 28819. Agent wrote A. J. Pittman under date of December 30, but no answer was received and the letter was returned January 13, whereupon Agent wrote Postmaster Elvin Lee, Mountain Grove, Missouri, who advised that no person by the name of A. J. PITTMAN has ever been served by his office and careful inquiry that failed to locate anyone by that name. The Postmaster states that INMAN was raised in that community and might have used the name PITTMAN. The Postmaster further advises that the State Highway Department issues license plates at Willow Springs, and Springfield, Missouri.

DETAILS:

An effort will be made to find and interview the Notary Public used in the issuance of the license to A.J. Pittman. The investigation is now being made by Agent A. W. Crandall in the vicinity of Mountain Grove, Missouri.

Agent interviewed Postmaster Elvin Lee, Deputy Sheriff Charles Erwin, and C. J. Hinkle, Marshal, of Mountain Grove, who stated that Subject had not been in or around that city in a Studebaker Sedan or any other car. Postmaster Lee was of the impression that he had seen Subject at a Carnival and reported same to Marshal Hinkle who investigated same and found that the party thought to be Subject by Mr. Lee was not Subject.

Subject was reared in this community and was known by almost everyone and it is almost impossible for him to have been at Mountain Grove without his presence having been reported to the local officers.

Agent called on A. S. Zellweger, in charge of the Sub-license Bureau, Springfield, Mo., who stated that 1927 Missouri License No. 483587 was issued by him during the month of August, 1927 for Studebaker Sedan to A. J. Pittman. This is the car that Subject had in possession when arrested at Hot Springs, Ark., bearing above license number and it is believed that A. J. Pittman is the same given by Subject at the time he procured above license plate.

CHARACTER OF CASE

Natl. Motor Vehicle Theft
MAR-1931

Defendant charged by U. S. Attorney, Oklahoma,
Oklahoma against subject at the Oklahoma State Penitentiary, McAlester, Oklahoma on 12-27-29.
His approximate date of release is August 20, 1930.

REFERENCE: Letter of E. A. G. J. R. Parke, Kansas City, dated 12-1-30.

Agent interviewed R. L. Shackelford, Bertillon clerk at Oklahoma State Penitentiary, McAlester, Oklahoma, the present subject's file, who advised that a defendant was lodged against him by the U. S. Attorney, Oklahoma, on October 27, 1929. Mr. Shackelford advised that his approximate date of release will be August 20, 1930. The records of the penitentiary failed to list any defendant under the name of the subject and that it is already contained in his file.

Dear Sir:

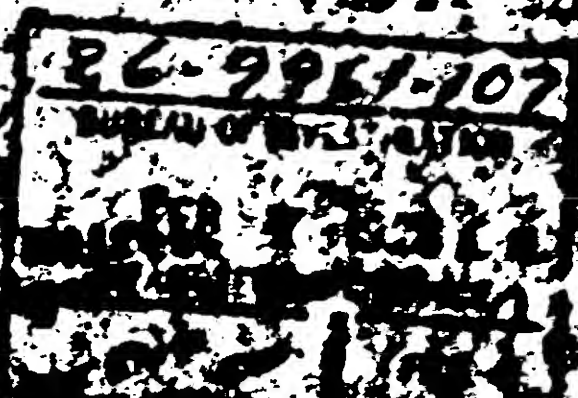

In re: RAY EMMETT, ELMER A. EMMETT,
Alias A. J. Pittman, Reg. I.O. 972
N. Y. S. A.

Under date of January 27th, we addressed a letter to the Oklahoma City Bureau office, in regard to the above entitled case, copy of which was also sent to the Dallas Bureau office.

Under date of January 30th, the Oklahoma City Bureau office wrote us, copy of which you also received, advising that report of Agent V. E. Miller of the Dallas Bureau office dated Dec. 10, 1927 set forth a lead for the Denver Bureau office, in the above entitled case.

We have made a thorough search of our files, and fail to find where the Denver Bureau office received copy of the above mentioned report of Agent Miller, and we are writing you now, asking that you furnish us with a copy of Agent Miller's report of Dec. 30th, 1927 so that this lead may be followed and report rendered on our findings.

Yours very truly,

Wm. J. Fox
